Quality Sound Goes Right to Your Head!

Whether you are listening to music, playing games, or watching a DVD, if you're going to put a sound system right on your ears, it better be a good one. Altec Lansing headphones feature neodymium earphones that deliver powerful, rich sound. And they're all fitted with gold-plated connectors to provide superior signal transfer. All in all, they deepen the listening experience. Any listening experience. And they're the perfect complement to today's advanced digital devices.
